

Tulsa County

An Affirmative Action Employer Committed to Workplace Diversity

Diversity Is Our Goal

At Tulsa County we understand the importance of a diverse workplace. We endorse and strive to create an environment of mutual respect for diversity. Our commitment to diversity relies on the fact that all individuals have the opportunity to contribute to the overall growth of the organization, regardless of their cultural or ethnic background. Workplace diversity is a strategy that allows Tulsa County to move forward to positively impact our overall success. Our employees are respected and valued for their contributions, and offered the opportunity to achieve their maximum potential.

Terry E. Tallent, Director of Human Resources

Tulsa County Annex
633 W. 3rd Street
Tulsa, OK 74127
Phone: 918.596.5095

See information below for Tulsa County employment opportunities.
Potential job applicants should submit an online employment application.

IMPORTANT: Submission of an electronic resume is considered as an expression of interest for a specific employment opportunity with Tulsa County, but does not substitute for the submission of an online employment application. All prospective employees must complete an employment application as a part of the hiring process. Applications may be obtained from the Tulsa County Human Resources office located at the Tulsa County Annex Building, 633 West Third Street, Tulsa, OK 74127